Demonstration Information Form

NWMAF is calling for all interested participants to submit their demonstration information form for the Saturday night All-Camp Demonstration. Our theme this year is “Many Passions, Harmony of Purpose” We encourage women participating in the demonstration to incorporate their own understanding and interpretation of the theme into their demonstration.

Demo Length: Demonstrations must not exceed 3 minutes in length.

Participants: While men and boys are welcome to attend the demonstration, the demonstration participants must be all women and girls.

Deadline: July 5, 2011. We realize that there are situations where it is not possible to finalize organization of a demonstration until participants have arrived on campus, but we request that you complete this application to the best of your ability and submit it by the deadline so that we may plan the demonstration appropriately.

Submit To: demo@nwmaf.org

Demo Format: NEW THIS YEAR The demo has traditionally been performance based, but this year the demo is being expanded to include display based entries. Display based entries may include posters, videos, anime, or other non-live pieces that allow women and girls to represent and share their self-defense and martial arts passions! Non-performance demonstration entries will be displayed during the demo intermission and additional times as appropriate.
